Co-op living

Living in a co-op community is different than living in an investor-owned park. This type of community living is unique – homeowners in resident owned communities are not simply tenants in a park, they are members of a co-op and owners of a business. As a co-op member it is important to understand that:

- The cooperative is a business incorporated under N.H. RSA 301-A, Consumers' Cooperative Associations. It is owned by its members. Individual homeowners do not own the land underneath their homes; the co-op does.
- The co-op has member-approved bylaws, which spell out how the business is governed.
- The co-op is democratically governed by a one-member, one vote system. Each member-household has equal decision-making authority.
- New homeowners moving into the community are required to become members and enter into an Occupancy Agreement, binding them to the bylaws and community rules.
- Members elect a board of directors to carry out the day-to-day tasks of running a business. The board then appoints committees to take on other tasks.
- Members have control over big decisions, such as carrying charges (rent), approving the annual budget, electing a board and amending the bylaws or community rules.
- Members can be expelled from the cooperative (which is different than being evicted from the community) for obstructing the management of the co-op. This is a serious matter and not to be taken lightly – members who are expelled typically lose voting privileges and pay a higher lot rent.

The board and the appointed committee members must adhere to the co-op's bylaws and rules, as well as to state and federal laws. They are also co-op members, and are accountable to their fellow members. They must run the co-op in a fair, consistent, democratic and business-like manner.

Co-op membership has rewards, rights and responsibilities. The strength of a resident-owned community is directly related to the participation and commitment of its members. By participating in the co-op, members can help reduce costs, build a vibrant neighborhood and grow as leaders. Participation includes everything from baking brownies for the annual community barbecue to operating the well system, from an hour a month to a two-year commitment on the board of directors.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.

You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:

- a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
- you are the victim of identify theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
- your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
- you are on public assistance;
- you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.

You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.

You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.

Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.

Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.

Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.

You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.

You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).

You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.

Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.ftc.gov/credit.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. Federal enforcers are:

Selling the home

Homeowner responsibilities

- The homeowner must inform the board of his or her intent to sell the home.
- In most co-ops, the home is required to be marketed to low- to moderate-income homebuyers for the initial period of 30-60 days, depending on the bylaws. All other considerations being equal, income-qualifying buyers will take precedence during this period. After this time period passes, this restriction is removed.
- If the homeowner vacates the home during the sale process, he or she is still fully responsible for all upkeep and lot rent.
- All co-op requirements regarding "For Sale" signage must be adhered to. Check the community rules for clarification.
- The homeowner is responsible for continued maintenance of the lot and preparation for the change in ownership. The lot must be left neat and clean. Any failure may result in the co-op holding back part or all of the seller's membership fee.
- The homeowner is the initial liaison between buyers/real estate agents and the membership committee.
- The homeowner/seller should request that a membership package be given to any prospective buyers and/or real estate agencies that list the home.
- The homeowner/seller is required to inform all prospective buyers of the requirement of membership acceptance, the process, the time frame involved, and any special conditions that may apply.
- Fuel storage tanks must be upgraded to meet state and federal installation standards BEFORE ownership changes. The financial responsibility for this must be decided between the seller and buyer.
- Pro-ration of lot rent must occur between the seller and buyer. No credit for any portion of lot rent will be given by the co-op to either party.
- The co-op DOES NOT involve itself with negotiations of the sale of the home, except as it may directly affect the cooperative!
- Transfer of the membership fee as a part of the sale is not allowed. The homeowner/seller must request reimbursement from the co-op and the buyer must pay their whole membership fee directly to the co-op.
- The sale transaction is not complete until the buyer's membership fee is paid in full to the co-op and verified, a new Occupancy Agreement is fully executed, and the transfer

Member Occupancy Agreement

Presidential Pines, Inc.

This Agreement, made and entered into at Loudon, State of New Hampshire this _____ day of _____, 20___, by and between the Presidential Pines Cooperative, a corporation organized under the State of New Hampshire, having its principal place of business at 1 Lazy Pines Drive, Loudon, New Hampshire (hereinafter called the "Corporation"), and _____ (name) (hereinafter called the "Member") of _____ (number and street) in said Corporation.

WHEREAS, the Corporation was organized to own and operate a manufactured housing community, now known as the Presidential Pines Cooperative, (hereinafter called the "Community"), for the benefit of its Members and others; and

WHEREAS, the Member has been provided a complete copy of the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Corporation and is familiar with their terms; and

WHEREAS, the Member acknowledges an understanding of, and will obey the Co-op Bylaws and Community Rules and acknowledges that failure to do so could be grounds for expulsion and/or eviction from the community;

WHEREAS, the Member has a bona fide intention to reside in the Community and to continue such residence during Membership; and

WHEREAS, the Member has paid or agrees to pay the Membership Fee of $500.00 and has executed a Membership Agreement and Promise to Pay and will receive a Certificate of Membership in the Corporation; and

WHEREAS, the Corporation and the Members deem it to be in their mutual interest to commemorate the Membership and proprietary lease in written form.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties do agree as follows:

Article 1 - Premises: The Corporation leases to the Member and the Member leases from the Corporation _____ (hereinafter called the "Lot") in the Community. (street address)

Article 2 - Term: Upon payment of the rental herein, and upon compliance with the other terms of this agreement, the bylaws of the Corporation, and the Community Rules established by the Members, all as they may be amended from time to time, the Member shall have a perpetual right to occupy said Lot. If Member intends to terminate the lease and Membership, Member shall provide thirty (30) days' written notice to the Corporation.

Article 3 - Carrying Charges: The Member covenants and agrees to pay all carrying charges and other expenses in a timely manner in the monthly sum of $435.00. The Lot Rent may be increased according to the bylaws, with a sixty (60) day written advance notice. The Lot Rent must be paid on the first day of each month and there is a $20.00 late payment fee for Lot Rent received after the 10th day of each month. All such late fees shall be considered additional rent hereunder.

Article 4 - Waiver of Homestead Interest: Member (and Member's spouse or partner in civil union signing this agreement for these purposes, if not as a Member) hereby waives any and all homestead rights, if any, established by state or federal law as to any lien by the Corporation for payment of lot rent and advances provided for in this agreement or by statute.

Article 5 - Membership Fee: The Member has executed a Membership Agreement and Promise to Pay and/or paid full before occupying the Lot. The Membership Agreement and Promise to Pay is hereby incorporated into this Occupancy Agreement by this reference.

Article 6 - Patronage Refunds: The Corporation may refund or credit to the Member, within ninety (90) days of the end of its fiscal year, the proportionate share of accumulated Lot Rent as has been collected from the Member that are in excess of the amount needed for expenses of all kinds, including reserves; but only insofar as such refund or credit is consistent with state law or permissible under the terms and provisions of any loan documentation incidental to secured mortgage financing upon the Community, as applicable from time to time.

Article 7- Eviction: The Member understands and acknowledges that he/she may be evicted from the Community for violation of this agreement or for any violation by which a Member may be evicted as set forth in the Community Rules or for any reason specified by statute, all as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended from time to time.

The Member also understands and acknowledges that eviction pursuant to this agreement is grounds for expulsion from Membership in the Corporation as well as for any reason specified in the Bylaws, as it now exists and as it may hereafter be amended from time to time. For this reason, all Eviction Notices may be accompanied by a notice of the charges against them and of a reasonable opportunity to be heard before the Board of Directors of the Corporation not less than 15 days from the date of said notice. Failure to give said notice shall not constitute grounds to delay or avoid eviction.

Article 8 - Assignment: The rights set forth herein may be assigned to a third party only in the event of extreme and temporary hardship, as determined by the Board of Directors and upon such terms and for such time periods as it deems appropriate.

Article 9- Invalidity: If any clause, part of a clause or provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid under any law or their application by a Court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity of all remaining portions of that clause or provision or the other clauses or provisions of this Agreement.

Article 10 - Waiver: Either party's failure to insist upon strict performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not be deemed or construed as a waiver of performance of any other term of the Agreement or a waiver of such provision on future occasion.

Article 11- Notices: Whenever the provisions of law or the Corporation Bylaws require Notice to be given to either party, any notice by the Corporation to the Member shall be deemed to have been duly given if the notice is delivered to the Member at the Lot or to the Member's last known address; and any notice by the Member if delivered to a current elected Officer of the Corporation. Such notice may also be given by depositing the notice in the United States mail, addressed to the Member, as shown on the books of the Corporation, or to the President of the Corporation, as the case may be, and the time of mailing shall be deemed to be the time of the giving of such notice.

Article 12- Representations Not Binding: No representations other than those contained in this Agreement, the Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws or the Community Rules of the Corporation, now in effect, or as they may hereafter be amended from time to time, shall be binding upon the Corporation.

Article 13- Incorporation of Articles of Incorporation, Community Rules, Bylaws and Corporation Resolution: The Articles of Incorporation, the bylaws, all Corporation resolutions, and its duly adopted Community Rules pertaining to the Community, now in effect, or as later amended from time to time, shall be binding upon the Corporation.

Article 14 - Attorneys' Fees and Costs: In the event any legal action is commenced by the Corporation to collect past due rent, to evict for any reason, or for any other reason, the homeowner must pay all legal fees and costs incurred by the Corporation. These fees and costs will be paid by the homeowner, even if the eviction is terminated or cancelled by the Corporation. The legal fees would also include all such fees and costs incurred in connection with a Supreme Court Appeal filed by the homeowner. The legal fees and costs incurred by the Corporation shall be considered additional rent for the unit in question, and this additional rent shall be due and payable by the homeowner in accordance with these Community Rules.

In the event a legal action is commenced against the Corporation by a homeowner and the Corporation prevails in said action or the action is withdrawn by the homeowner, the homeowner shall be required to reimburse the Corporation in defending such action. In no event shall the Corporation be responsible for paying the homeowner's legal fees. This is justified since the homeowner is a member of the Corporation and a partial owner of the Corporation. The term legal action shall include any civil action brought before the court of law and any action or claim brought before a Board, administrative agency or other such body.

Article 15 - Time of the Essence: Time is of the essence of this Occupancy Agreement and any term, covenant or condition contained herein.

Article 16 - Joint and Several Liabilities: If more than one (1) Member party shall execute this Agreement, the obligations of the Members shall be their joint and several obligations in every instance.

Article 17 - Assignment to Lender: The Member recognizes and agrees that this Agreement is subject to a certain Collateral Assignment of Leases and Occupancy Agreements between the Corporation and its lending institutions and further agrees to accept and recognize these lenders' rights under said Assignment in the event those rights are exercised.

per check. No re-deposits will be made. Non-members will pay $100.00 dollars above the prevailing member lot rent.

Failure to give notice can result in 30 days additional lot rent. In either case, the homeowner is responsible for advising any potential buyers of the requirement to join the cooperative as a condition of allowing the home to remain in the community.

For a period of thirty (30) days following the delivery of the notice to the Board, if the resident receives more than one offer for the same price upon the same terms and conditions, and one of said offers is from a lower-income family or individual, the resident shall accept the offer from the lower-income family or individual. Provided that the Board may authorize the sale to someone other than a lower-income family or individual at the request of the selling resident in the case of a sale to a family member or where the delay in selling would pose an unreasonable hardship for the selling resident.

A lower-income family or individual shall be defined as a family or individual whose total income does not exceed 80% of the median income in the county as determined by the U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development and published in the Federal Register.

If the Cooperative is owed money by the resident, the Board of Directors will sign a deed (within 15 days as required by RSA 477:44), as requested but may insist that the deed be transmitted directly to the escrow or closing agent with a Notice of Lien (pursuant to 205-A:4-a) on the resident's home for those amounts due and owing the Cooperative. The deed should only be recorded upon payment to the Cooperative of all outstanding balances due to the Cooperative, if not the Buyer will be on notice of the lien and the Cooperative may collect it against the home despite the transfer.

The following shall apply in all situations where Fannie Mae or USDA-Rural Development holds or guarantees an Eligible Loan on a home in this cooperative:

- Notwithstanding any other Bylaw provision, the purchaser of a Manufactured Home who acquired title at a foreclosure sale conducted by the holder of an "Eligible Loan" (as defined by RSA 205-A:4-a), or directly from the holder of an Eligible Loan, shall be exempt from any "low income" requirement.
- Notwithstanding rights of the Cooperative under RSA 205-A:4-a or other law, any holder of an Eligible Loan which is actively pursuing the right to foreclose or which has acquired title to the Manufactured Home by purchase itself at a foreclosure sale or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, and which has paid or is paying the Cooperative Rent and

Other Charges owing by a Member under an Occupancy Agreement, shall not be required to advance more than six (6) months of Rent and Other Charges, and the Cooperative's lien rights, as to amounts owing to it by the Member under the Occupancy Agreement or otherwise, shall be subordinate to the rights of the holder of an Eligible Loan, and amounts owing to the Cooperative shall only be paid out of the excess proceeds, if any, available after transfer of the Manufactured Home to a third party, and after all amounts outstanding under the Eligible Loan, including repayment of advances of monthly Rent and Other Charges, have been paid in full.

- 5) Septic systems are not to be used for disposal of grease, condoms, feminine napkins or tampons, children's toys, anti-bacterial wipes, diaper wipes, diapers, non-bathroom tissue or bio-hazard material. As a co-op member, you are an owner of our systems and premature failure of the leach beds is a costly expense that could increase our rent. If the damages are found to be due to the homeowner's failure to follow this rule, the homeowner may be responsible for the entire cost of the repair.

- 6) It is the responsibility of the homeowner to provide for securing the home's water lines from leakage, especially during the winter months. At this time, the standard method is by heat tape. If using heat tapes, the homeowner is required to inspect and plug them in each year in the fall. In all cases, the total number of occupants shall not exceed the Cooperative's established occupancy limits. Each additional adult Occupant must meet the co-op's Criminal Background Criteria.

- 9) Adults, children, pets, and their guests are not to be on the lot or property of others, uninvited.
- 10) Residents and guests will conduct themselves in a reasonable manner so as not to disturb others. Public drunkenness is strictly prohibited. This is a drug free Community. Use, sale or giving of illegal drugs to others in this community is prohibited and will be cause for immediate eviction.

Any tank not in compliance shall be brought into compliance. Any tank not brought into compliance with such standards within the time given in a written notice from the Cooperative Board of Directors may be replaced by the Cooperative at the expense of the homeowner and such expenses may be collected and assessed in the same manner as rents under RSA 205-A:4-a.

VI. ANIMALS

While the members of this community understand that animals are personally pleasurable and important, not everyone likes the same pets. The following rules are intended to create a healthy environment for everyone.

- 1) Domestic pets are allowed in this community with restrictions. There is a limit of two dogs. If a homeowner has two dogs, one dog must be less than 50 pounds. All cats and dogs are required to have proper and timely immunizations. Proper immunization is an important responsibility of the homeowner.
- 2) The feeding of any animals outside is forbidden, wild or otherwise.

- 3) Farm animals, including but not limited to, cows, chickens, horses, sheep, goats, pigs and the like, and wild animals, may not be kept on Cooperative property, either as pets or for any other reason.

Where the situation warrants, residents may apply for an exception to Community Rules by submitting a written Request for a Reasonable Accommodation to any member of the Board of Directors. The request for a Reasonable Accommodation will be heard by the Board of Directors at the next regularly scheduled board meeting. Any exception that is granted by the board shall be subject to revocation at the sole discretion of the board.

VIII. ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS

In the event any legal action is commenced by the cooperative to collect past due rent, to evict for any reason, or for any other reason, the homeowner must pay all legal fees and costs incurred by the cooperative. These fees and costs will be paid by the homeowner, even if the eviction is terminated or cancelled by the cooperative. The legal fees would also include all such fees and costs incurred in connection with a Supreme Court Appeal filed by the homeowner. The legal fees and costs incurred by the cooperative shall be considered additional rent for the unit in question, and this additional rent shall be due and payable by the homeowner in accordance with these Community Rules.

In the event a legal action is commenced against the Cooperative by a homeowner and the Cooperative prevails in said action or the action is withdrawn by the homeowner, the homeowner shall be required to reimburse the Cooperative in defending such action. In no event shall the Cooperative be responsible for paying the homeowner's legal fees. This is justified since the homeowner is a member of the Cooperative and a partial owner of the Cooperative. The term legal action shall include any civil action brought before the court of law and any action or claim brought before a Board, administrative agency or other such body.

IX. SEVERABILITY

Should any Rule, or part of a Rule, be found to be illegal, invalid and/or unenforceable, in whole or in part, by a court of competence jurisdiction or authorized local, state or federal agency, the remaining Rules, or the remaining part of the Rule affected by the invalidity, shall be unaffected and shall remain fully enforceable.

X. LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

The Homeowner and his or her family members, guests, and invitees (collectively, "the Homeowner") shall indemnify and hold the Cooperative, its Board of Directors, members, representatives, and agents (collectively, "the Cooperative") from any and all liability, loss and damage, including but not limited to, bodily injury, illness, death or property damage which the Cooperative becomes legally obligated to pay, including reasonable attorneys fees and court costs, as a result of claims, demands, judgments or costs against the Cooperative arising out of the Homeowner's use or occupancy of the Homeowner's lot or any Cooperative property, including but not limited to, park streets and roads, caused by or arising from the negligence, fault or liability of the Homeowner or third parties, whether such negligence, fault or liability is sole, joint or several. The Homeowner's indemnification obligation hereunder shall include, but not be limited to, any and all liability, loss and damage arising from (i) the installation, use or maintenance of above ground fuel-storage tanks and any and all hazardous waste claims associated with the same; (ii) the keeping of pet(s) and (iii) the installation, use or maintenance of plumbing, gas, water, steam or other pipes or sewage, or the bursting, leaking or running of any pipe, tank, washstand, water closet or waste pipe, or electrical lines, in, above, upon or about Homeowner's lot or Cooperative property. The Cooperative shall not be liable to Homeowner for any liability, loss and damage arising from the acts or omissions, whether negligent or intentional, of other homeowners/occupants, members, and their family members, guests, and invitees. The Homeowner shall pay for any expense, damage, or repair occasioned by the stopping of waste pipes or overflow of water, and from any and all damages not occasioned by reasonable wear and tear, caused by Homeowner's improper use thereof. Nothing herein shall be deemed to release the Cooperative from its intentional or grossly negligent acts or omissions.

The Cooperative shall not be responsible for claims or damages that may be caused by the re-entering and taking of possession by the Cooperative of the Homeowner's lot or house, as the case may be, under these rules and regulations or the laws of the State of New Hampshire regarding evictions.

If an existing Member transfers title to a Home to his or her "living" or "Grantor" trust, the trust will not be considered a new owner or buyer under this paragraph. Members transferring their Membership into a permissible "living" or "grantor" trust must furnish the Cooperative with either a copy of said trust document or a letter of opinion from an attorney stating that the trust to which the title has transferred is a revocable, grantor trust wherein the Member(s) is (are) the Trustee(s) during his/her/their lifetime, or competency, and with said Member(s) as the sole beneficiary during his/her/their lifetime.

Written notice of the charges against each Member, and reasonable opportunity for a hearing before the Board of Directors, shall be provided before any such expulsion. A reasonable opportunity is defined as fifteen (15) day notice. Re-application for Membership will require Board review and Membership approval before re-issuance of Certificate of Membership. The reason for the expulsion shall be clearly stated, recorded, placed in the permanent files and a copy given to the Member.
- C. Any Member who wishes to be represented by legal counsel as the result of a Cooperative action must notify the Board of this fact ten (10) days in advance of the meeting. The Members shall solely be responsible for the cost of his or her attorney. In no case should the Cooperative be responsible for the legal fees of the Member.

3.7 Patronage Refunds:

Members shall have a right to determine whether excess lot fees collected in any given fiscal year shall be returned to Members as patronage refund or retained as additional funding for reserves or for the needs of the following year operations. The Cooperative may refund or credit to the Member, within ninety (90) days of the end of its fiscal year; but only insofar as such refund or credit is consistent with state law or permissible under the terms and provisions of any loan terms, as applicable from time to time. ## International Cooperative Alliance Principles

1st Principle: Voluntary and Open Membership

Co-operatives are voluntary organizations, open to all persons able to use their services and willing to accept the responsibilities of membership, without gender, social, racial, political or religious discrimination.

2nd Principle: Democratic Member Control

Co-operatives are democratic organizations controlled by their members, who actively participate in setting their policies and making decisions. Men and women serving as elected representatives are accountable to the membership. In primary co-operatives members have equal voting rights (one member, one vote) and co-operatives at other levels are also organized in a democratic manner.

3rd Principle: Member Economic Participation

Members contribute equitably to, and democratically control, the capital of their co-operative. At least part of that capital is usually the common property of the co-operative. Members usually receive limited compensation, if any, on capital subscribed as a condition of membership. Members allocate surpluses for any or all of the following purposes: developing their co-operative, possibly by setting up reserves, part of which at least would be indivisible; benefiting members in proportion to their transactions with the co-operative; and supporting other activities approved by the membership.

4th Principle: Autonomy and Independence

Co-operatives are autonomous, self-help organizations controlled by their members. If they enter to agreements with other organizations, including governments, or raise capital from external sources, they do so on terms that ensure democratic control by their members and maintain their co-operative autonomy.

5th Principle: Education, Training and Information

Co-operatives provide education and training for their members, elected representatives, managers, and employees so they can contribute effectively to the development of their co-operatives. They inform the general public - particularly young people and opinion leaders - about the nature and benefits of co-operation.

6th Principle: Co-operation among Co-operatives

Co-operatives serve their members most effectively and strengthen the co-operative movement by working together through local, national, regional and international structures.

7th Principle: Concern for Community

Co-operatives work for the sustainable development of their communities through policies approved by their members.

These principles can be found on the International Cooperative Alliance website at <http://www.ica.coop/al-ica/>.
